

Buraq Jet Company participated in the Saudi International Air Show

Date : March 20, 2019

The Buraq Jet Company participated in the Saudi International Air show at Al-Thumamah airport - Riyadh. The event is the first aviation and aerospace Exhibition of its kind in Saudi Arabia with 100,000 sqm of exhibit space, 260 exhibitors, 15,000 international trade attendees and 100 aircraft. In the exhibition the latest technology has been introduced with the presence of major companies, aviation experts and investors. The exhibition has concentrated in 4 main major sectors including: Commercial aviation, private aviation, business and general aviation, defence aviation, airport infrastructure and suppliers.

The Buraq company participated by presenting the company's profile and activities and also introducing the King Air 350 i ER aircraft owned by the company and which characterized by the highest standard in the field of aviation, take-off and landing in both asphalt and strip runways, and can fly for up to seven hours continuously and has on board availability of telephone and internet services.