

Financial and Administrative System (Oracle ERP) in efficiency project in Sudan

Date : June 18, 2019

Implementation of Oracle ERP in the efficiency project for financial, warehouses, procurement, sales and human resources systems in Sudan is being completed by the Information Technology Department of Al Rajhi International for Investment Co. Several training courses were held during implementation to enable the team to use the latest technology most efficiently.