

The RAIC Company Launched the ERP System

Date : March 21, 2019

The RAIC company has successfully launched the ERP system, the integrated applications to manage the company's projects and automate many back-office functions related to technology and one of the important factors which will help in achieving the company's objectives and improving the projects management including financial resources, warehouses and issuance of reports as well as increase the dependency on information technology.